INTRODUCTION

---

Hello, first off I'd like to thank you for buying this method. With that being said, I assure you this method will work for you. I used to pay people to get me Youtube views, until I discovered this, and yes this WAS discovered by me and me only.

So lets get right to it!

REQUIREMENTS

---

1. $5
2. A fiverr account
3. Youtube video

STEPS

1. Look for a fiverr gig that offers youtube views/likes/comments or whatever you want. I recommend looking for one that has a lot of orders in queue, and has a lot of positive feedback.
2. Once you have found the gig you like, simply use the $5 you have to purchase it. Now don't leave yet, there IS a twist at the end.
3. Wait till your order is  $\frac{3}{4}$  done. For example if you were suppose to get 20k views, wait till you are at 15k – 18k views and request to cancel your order. Explain the reason behind your cancelation by saying something along the lines of " This video got taken down in my contry ". Make sure to sound foreign.
4. They will most likely cancel your order and you will get $5 in your Fiverr account balance which you will be able to purchase another gig and do this over and over again.

5. If they refuse to pay you back, you simply open a ticket with Fiverr support and say something along the lines of "Hi, this user promised to get me legit/safe Youtube views for my video to help me advertise. My video got banned in my country and I got a email saying Youtube will take legal actions against me for having counterfeit views. I'm about to completely remove my video because of this, please give my money back"
