

Quickly Start The Shared Folder Wizard

Want to share a folder, or multiple folders, quickly and easily?

You can invoke the Shared Folder Wizard by typing `shrpwb.exe` at the Run box or command line. The wizard takes you through the process of setting up a shared folder and allows you to start the process over within the same wizard, which is especially good if you want to make multiple folders shared.